

Canadian
Heritage

Patrimoine
canadien

Canada

(CS) Computer and IT Services

Some relevant fields of study: computer programming, computer science, computer systems, computer engineering, mathematics, electronics technology, telecommunications, information technology.

Our computer systems officers are responsible for maintaining IT infrastructure. Their key roles and duties include:

- Administering a departmental network
- Operating and maintaining systems
- Configuring new hardware
- Analyzing systems
- Troubleshooting
- Installing and testing new systems
- Researching emergent technologies
- Warehousing data
- Developing policy and strategies

Salaries range from $50,140 to $125,389 (CS-01 to CS-05)
Effective December 22, 2009

